COUNSEL

Dear Mr. Jordan,

It is clear that Mr. Haynes complaint is nothing more than an attempt to intimidate me. There are factual errors in his complaint and he offers no proof of his central false allegation that my efforts were solely on behalf of the Democratic candidate I support for President.

I supported the efforts of the Californians for Fair Election Reform Committee to fight against the destruction of a time-honored framework in which my home state allocates electoral votes.

Mr. Haynes statement that, "all news report indicate that the sole purpose of the flurry of activity engaged in by HCPC operatives in forming and donating to CFER was to help the Clinton campaign," is patently false. News reports I was privy to claimed no such thing. And if some press reports made that claim it would not be correct.

Many Democratic presidential candidates and Republicans opposed this initiative.

I learned of this effort through a national news story while vacationing on the east coast. I call and inquired as to what I could do to help. This is how I came to donate to this effort.

If you would like additional information please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,
